Dear Command Sergeant Major Ecker,

On behalf of the Occupational Therapists, Physical Therapists, Dietitians, and Physician Assistants of the Army Medical Specialist Corps, I congratulate you and the members of the Army Medical Enlisted Corps on your 129th anniversary.

Throughout our history, Hospital Stewards dedicated themselves to providing medical services to our Soldiers. Their devotion and selfless service paved the way for the establishment of the Army Medical Enlisted Corps. The Corps' heritage is built upon courage, professionalism, and compassion which is a true testament to the quality of your Soldiers. Thank you for your exceptional service and support to the Army Medical Department.

The members of the Army Medical Specialist Corps are proud to serve alongside you as we support our Warfighters and work towards strengthening the health of our Nation. We wish you and your Corps continued success and salute you on this happy occasion.

Sincerely,
